FORCED TO FLEE

Throughout history people have been forced to flee from their homes for their own safety and survival due to war, oppression, natural disasters, and human rights violations.

This exhibition explores the issues surrounding the global refugee crises, impacts on families and communities, the stress placed on host countries, and the need for new initiatives, funding, and international cooperation to find solutions.

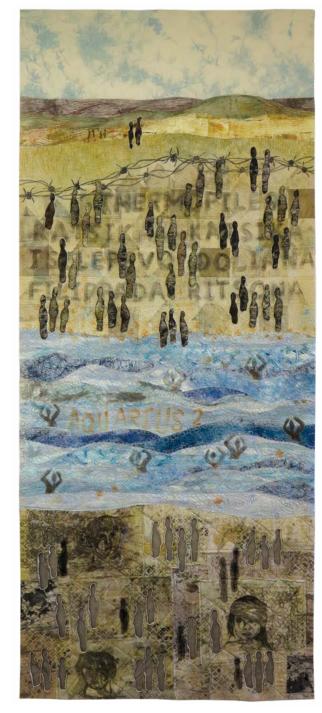

JUROR: Dr. Susan Beryl Marks

VENUES:

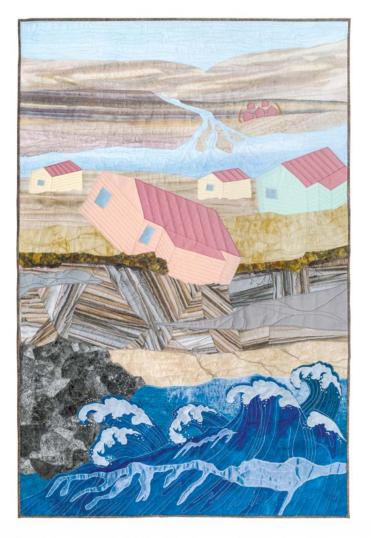

Ruth Funk Center for Textile Arts Melbourne, Florida MAY 25-AUGUST 24, 2019

The Historical & Cultural Society of Clay County Moorhead, Minnesota JUNE-OCTOBER 2021

AVAILABILITY: Through June 2022

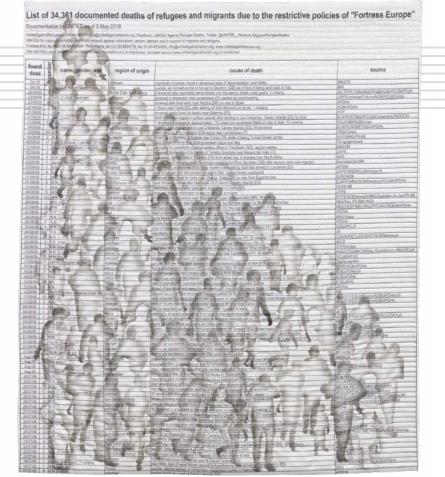

www.saqa.com/globalexhibitions

CLOCKWISE FROM UPPER LEFT: The Lucky Ones? by Claire Passmore Goodbye My Village by Charlotte Bird Tengo Hambre-I am Hungry by Jennifer Day Page 27-Exodus 1 by Sabi Westoby

Roadmap by Margaret L. Abramshe